

Łíídlıı Kúé First Nation

COMMUNITY JUSTICE CIRCLE IS LOOKING FOR NEW MEMBERS.

The role of the Community Justice Circle is to help young people who have broken the law to pay back for the harm they have done to the Community.

WHAT WE LOOK FOR IN A NEW MEMBER:

You have your own life experiences that a young person can learn from.

You are concerned about young people getting in trouble with the law.

You are sober.

You can make hard decisions.

Willing to have a criminal records check.

WHAT YOU DON'T NEED:

Not required to have a good education.

Not required to know about the law.

Not expected to be a counselor.

Not expected to be perfect. we all have struggled and will again.
If you have a criminal record we just need 2 years free of charges.

Please contact Robert in the Community Justice Office for more information.

Robert Cell 867 445 3517 / Office 867 695 3131 extention 1010